INTELLIFLO BOOSTS ITS TEAM FOR 2008

7th February 2008

Award-winning front and back office solution firm IntelliFlo, has further expanded its team with two new appointments. Eileen Murphy joins as Training Consultant and Trish Payne as Client Account Executive.

Eileen has over 21 years experience within both the financial services and software industries, as well as managing her own IFA practice. Eileen comments, "I am delighted to be joining IntelliFlo and am very excited at the prospect of delivering quality online training."

Trish joins IntelliFlo from Liverpool Victoria where she was responsible for account management. She has over 30 years experience within financial services, at companies such as TSB, Bradford & Bingley and Millfield, as well as working as an IFA for 15 years. Trish comments, "I am delighted to be joining IntelliFlo at a dynamic time for the company, and am very much looking forward to my new role."

"We are delighted to welcome Eileen and Trish to the team" says Chief Executive Officer Nick Eatock. "They bring a wealth of experience to IntelliFlo, and will help build and manage our continued growth."
